Home Improvement Application for Architectural Review Committee

In order to protect homeowner property values and privacy, improvements or changes to properties, besides flower/plant replacement, generally requires submittal of a HOME IMPROVEMENT APPLICATION (HIA). This request is reviewed by the Architectural Review Committee (ARC) to ensure compliance with deed restrictions, architectural guidelines and local statutes, and to protect neighboring homeowners. If any change is made without an HIA approval or if the final construction varies in detail from the approved HIA, the Association has the right to require the homeowner to remove or correct the change.
